TRADE MARK 'Yet doth he give us bold advertisement' SHAKESPEARE

Griffith & Byrne,

GENERAL JOB PRINTERS,

LITHOGRAPHERS, &c.

FOR BANKS, MERCHANTS,

MANUFACTURERS, &c.

113 & 115 Leonard Street

Three Doors East of Broadway.

The benefits of dealing directly with Printers are becoming so well recognized as to render an enumeration of them almost unnecessary. They are the known advantages resulting from the avoidance of all intervening profits between the manufacturer and the consumer. To retain this intermediate profit the Stationers of this City resort to misrepresentation.

They disparage Style—which from their superficial knowledge of "the Art" they cannot understand, and with their facilities can but poorly imitate.

Yet there can be no greater misapprehension than to suppose that the form of an announcement does not influence its effectiveness.

Style is as essential in Printing as earnestness is in direct personal intercourse. The merits claimed for our Office are in the adaptation of the Style to the subject of an announcement.

Correct Taste

Bold Display

by which the prominent points are conveyed at a glance.

GRIFFITH & BYRNE.

PRINTERS,

113 & 115 LEONARD ST. N.Y.

Patent Type Ribbon.

A novelty peculiarly our own, for Note and Letter Headings, Cards, Circulars, and every description of Printing—susceptible of varied forms—equal to engraving—and supplied at a slight advance on printing prices.

We are Patentees and Exclusive Printers throughout the U. S. for these Ribbons, and will prosecute infringements.

Printing Office, 113 & 115 Leonard St.

Three Doors East of Broadway.

Unable to censure our style or workmanship, our competitors, the Stationers, insinuate that they can copy our work and supply it at lower prices: so mediocrity finds its petty gains in petty deeds.

Wherever we have met these Stationers we have fairly beaten them!

In price, style, material and workmanship, they have been forced to follow where we led, and are to-day the servile imitators of our advanced styles, the beauty and the popularity of which are alike incomprehensible to them.

Not by favor but by merit do we desire to hold our business reputation and, while aiming at still higher excellence in our Art, shall not forget that organized economy offers the surest guarantee of success.

Our Prices will be invariably lower than those of Stationers, the artifice of one price below cost, others exorbitant, we leave to those who, having no criterion of merit, are without a knowledge of values.

PATENTEES AND EXCLUSIVE PRINTERS OF TYPE RIBBON.

Griffith & Byrne.
