CIGARS.

The proposed Statue of Liberty to be erected at the junction of Canal and Vesey Sts., N. Y. City.

This much talked of statue, outlines of which are given above, was designed by the world-renowned sculptor Patrick Michael Moriarity of Dublin. The classic inspiration of the artist is so well portrayed that little need be said in explanation, and inasmuch as the object of the smokers of America in erecting this monument is generally understood to be as a slight expression of their appreciation of the quality and excellence of the celebrated WEDGEWOOD five cent cigar and to bestow further fame and honor upon this favorite brand, we have no doubt that every smoker in the United States will be glad of the opportunity to contribute liberally toward so good a cause. Printed slips for this purpose will be sent to any address, while dealers throughout the country are invited to write to Messrs. Thurber, Whyland & Co., of New York, for samples of this popular cigar. Trial orders, however, are much preferred and inasmuch as the cigar is bound to give satisfaction in every particular, it is to the interest of every merchant to carefully consider the importance of either testing the merits of the article or placing them on sale without delay.

Correspondence in regard to prices, terms, etc., should be addressed to J. Edward Cowles, Manager Cigar Department.

"Here we must part."

As Beatrice K. Boggs spoke these words, a tear stole down her richly painted cheek. Her demeanor, queenly though it was, told of an inward sorrow that she could not hide. By her side stood R. Archibald Flaherty, a man whose whole life seemed bound in hers. Since childhood they had played together. But now a change had come over her, and as he stepped to her side yestere'en she spoke to him sadly but firmly, using the words with which this item opens.

Archibald could hardly believe he heard aright. Part from her! It could not be! It must not be!

"Tell me, Beatrice, tell me what this means."

"Do not urge me, Archie, I cannot do it. It breaks my heart, but it must be."

"But you must tell me, girl, or I shall die and end it all."

"Well, rather than have you die, my dear, I will tell you. Mother says she will not have a man about the house who smokes such horrid cigars as you do, as it takes all day to get the parlor aired after you have spent the evening, and it has just ruined her lace curtains. Richard Augustus Montgomery comes when he pleases, and mother finds no fault. He smokes a brand called Aa-|-A1; they only cost five cents, and he says they are the best in the world, and mother says their fragrance is delicious. Now Archie, I hate him and love you, but what am I to do?"

"Say not another word, Beatrice. I'll buy a box though it takes my whole week's salary."

And thus was their happiness restored.

These celebrated cigars are now sold by nearly every dealer in first-class goods. Those who have not already given them a trial should write for samples, terms, etc., to Thurber, Whyland & Co., New York. Letters should be addressed to J. Edward Cowles, Manager Cigar Department.

PUT IT OUT.

By H. C. DODGE.

In Sunday's "World."

This is the stump of a dead cigar,
That brainless men bring in the car,
Without a thought of how they mar
The comfort of others,
Who fastened in the crowded L,
Must breathe its stale tobacco smell,
Which has for stink no parallel,
And permeates and smothers.
And all because a fellow mean,
Or one from out the country green,
Or one who has no culture seen,
Or some "dead-broke" beginner
Must save what tramps would throw away,
To smoke, perhaps, the following day,
Or use within his pipe of clay
After his hash-mill dinner.
These boorish men, without a doubt,
Like their cigars should be put out.

PUT IT IN.

BY ONE WHO KNOWS A GOOD CIGAR WHEN HE SMOKES IT.

This represents our B-|-1,
The finest cigar under the sun,
Whose reputation has been won
Through everything propitious,
And when it's lighted, all must say,
"Just blow more of the smoke this way
That smells so much like new-mown hay,
Yet even more delicious."
If THIS cigar is once "put out,"
And no one knows it is about,
The passengers without a doubt,
Would think they scented roses.
Their handkerchiefs they'd put to soak,
In extracts of this fragrant smoke,
And on themselves would play a joke,
As well as on their noses.
For this cigar is bound to win
And by the dealer be put in.

For samples or further particulars regarding the B-|-1 five cent cigar,

LIME JUICE.

MARTINIQUE

Lime Fruit Juice Company

Office, 160 Duane St., NEW YORK.

The universal favor with which our prepared Lime Juice has been received in the American market during the last three years, has induced us to put forth renewed efforts to supply the demand for this year. We have been careful to see that nothing but the purest and most recently expressed juice has been bottled, thus avoiding the mustiness, brown color and offensive flavor which often are found in old juice.

Although the antiseptic and antiscorbutic properties of old juice which it is acknowledged by all the medical faculty to possess, are unimpaired, yet its taste and flavor is not so agreeable. We have therefore arranged to use only the most recently expressed juice, prepared under our process, and now we offer an article which we guarantee to be of fine flavor and PERFECT PURITY, each cask being carefully tested by an experienced chemist.

As a substitute at table for wines and ales it is of great value, aiding and promoting the assimilation and digestion of the food. In acute rheumatism, caused by chalky deposits, it is used with great advantage, neutralizing the carbonates and eliminating them through the kidneys. The sickness and disease caused by drinking cistern, surface or other impure water, can be largely prevented by the use of the MARTINIQUE LIME JUICE, which destroys the animalculæ and vegetable fungus existing in those liquids. It completely destroys the bad flavor of the Croton water, of which so much complaint has been made.

We are now prepared to fill orders, and would suggest that purchasers send their orders at an early date, so as to avoid delay of transportation and be ready for the opening of the summer trade.

WILSON'S
OF THE
CITY OF NEW YORK.

Corrected May 1, 1888.

Entered according to Act of Congress, in the Year 1888, by
THE TROW CITY DIRECTORY CO.,
In the Office of the Librarian of Congress at Washington.

EXPLANATION.

IF you wish to find the location of any dwelling-house or store,—for instance, No. 80 ALLEN Street,—on consulting the Street Directory (see ALLEN) you will observe that 66 Allen is on the right hand of that street and on the corner of Grand, and 86 Allen is on the right-hand corner of Broome; hence the desired number, 80 Allen, will be on the right-hand side of Allen Street, between Grand and Broome.

Or, suppose you are going up Broadway, and wish to take a cross street, so as to call at 236 Hudson Street; on examination (see HUDSON) of the corner numbers in Hudson Street, you will observe that 230 Hudson Street is on the corner of Broome; hence by passing from Broadway, through Broome Street to Hudson, you are near to the desired number 236.

NOTE.—The following resolution, adopted by the Board of Aldermen March 21, 1882, and approved by the Mayor March 28, 1882, will explain the plan of numbering the streets north of Harlem River:

Resolved, That the prefix West be given to all cross streets in the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Wards lying west of the avenue (known as Broadway), which runs from a point in the vicinity of Kingsbridge to Yonkers, and that the prefix East be given to all cross streets lying east of said avenue and the Harlem River.

That Willis avenue be numbered, commencing at the Harlem River, and that said numbering run continuously through Willis, Melrose, and Webster avenues.

That all other avenues in the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Wards, having a generally northerly and southerly direction, be given the same number at the cross streets nearest their southern terminus as that on Willis, Melrose, and Webster avenues at the intersection of said cross street, and then numbered accordingly.

That cross streets at their easterly intersection with said Willis, Melrose, and Webster avenues be given a specific number,* and that all cross streets be numbered therefrom, diminishing toward the west and increasing toward the east, according to their distance from said Willis, Melrose, and Webster avenues.

* 650.

NOTE.—For location of apartment houses and office buildings see pages 54 & 56.
