OF NEW JERSEY

OF IMPORTANCE TO LAWYERS

THE laws of New Jersey governing the formation and management of Corporations are so framed as to invite confidence and investment.

The annual tax on the franchise is not burdensome.

The laws of the State are strict enough to secure integrity in the management of corporations, but not so as to hinder the investment of capital.

No Court of Record in the world has ever given an adverse criticism upon a single provision of the General Corporation Act of New Jersey.

The Judiciary of New Jersey is above reproach, and corporations organized in that State are not subject to nonsensical attacks.

To organize a corporation under the laws of New Jersey means to start it with a charter entitled to respect.

Legitimate capital prefers a New Jersey charter.

Members of the Bar contemplating the formation of a corporation can obtain full information, free of charge, how it should be formed, what the duties and liabilities of incorporators are, what the taxes will be, what business the Company may do and where it may do it, the duties and liabilities of officers, what kinds of stocks and bonds may be issued—in short may obtain information, as well as official forms and blanks, regarding every point involved in formation and management, by applying to
